

GENERAL MANAGER – VOODOO RAY'S CAMDEN

We are recruiting for a General Manager for our site in the North Yard, Camden Market. For a relaxed fast food style dining and drinking. We are looking for someone who has bar or restaurant manager experience. With the main objective to build the evening service trade.

A dynamic, hardworking person with a broad range of experience and interests, who will be excellent at managing a front-of-house team, and will also have expertise in stock control, rota management, and can juggle the variety of skills needed to increase footfall and sales. It is essential that the right candidate can prioritize, multitask and motivate a team. Time spent working and/or living locally will be a huge help.

The role will require a 45 hour week and a combination of day and night shifts. Salary & bonus scheme dependent on experience.

If you think could be the right person, please get in touch with a CV and let us know a little more about yourself.
