

GENERAL MANAGER – VOODOO RAY'S PECKHAM

Recently named 'London's No.1 Pizza Slice' by Time Out, Voodoo Ray's serves NY-style pizza alongside cocktails, craft beers and loads of other great stuff. We're part of an independent but growing company with sites located in Dalston, Shoreditch & Camden.

We are looking for motivated, passionate and dedicated people who share our values and can make a real difference to a business. We are interested in people who want to push the boundaries of hospitality, with their own voice that can help propel our brand forward into new territories.

We are recruiting for a General Manager for our new site in Peckham. We're looking for someone with at least three years of management experience (preferably at GM level). A dynamic, hard working person with broad range of experience and interests, who will be excellent at managing a front-of-house team, and will also have expertise in stock control, rota management, project planning and can juggle the variety of skills needed to open a new site. It is essential that the right candidate can prioritise, multitask and motivate a brand-new team. Time spent working and/or living locally will be a huge help.

After the initial opening phase the role will require a 45 hour week and a combination of day and night shifts. Salary & bonus scheme dependent on experience.

If you think could be the right person, please get in touch on jobs@voodoorays.com with your CV and tell us about yourself.
