

PIZZA CHEF - VOODOO RAY'S (ALL LOCATIONS)

Recently named 'London's No.1 Pizza Slice' by Time Out, Voodoo Ray's serves NY-style pizza alongside cocktails, craft beers and loads of other great stuff. We're part of an independent but growing company, with shops in Dalston, Shoreditch, Camden and soon in Peckham.

We are looking for motivated, passionate and dedicated people who share our values and want to make a real difference to the business. We're looking for people who want to push the boundaries of hospitality, have their own voice, want to help propel our brand forward into new territories and most importantly, love pizza as much as we do. As a growing company, there's also room for progression with us.

We are recruiting for Pizza Chefs to join our busy shops in either Camden Market, Dalston, Boxpark Shoreditch or Peckham. You will need to have your Health and Hygiene certificates and preferably experience with pizza and dough (but it is not essential as training will be provided).

We are looking for full and part time chefs, available to work a mixture of shifts, including days, evenings and weekends.

Please send us a copy of your current CV and a bit about yourself to jobs@voodooorays.com
